

Feeding HK Community Network

Join hands with us to promote the message of reducing food waste and feeding those In need.

About Us

Feeding Hong Kong is a Hong Kong registered charity established in 2011. Our mission is to fight hunger and reduce the amount of quality food being sent to landfills in Hong Kong.

We do this by collecting surplus stock from food companies. We sort and store it, then redistribute it to charities who feed those in need.

We are the sole accredited member of the Global Food Banking Network (GFN) in Hong Kong.

Our impact since 2011

Numbers matter. We can't do what we do without the generosity of our corporate partners. Partner with Feeding Hong Kong and join us in turning an environmental problem into a social solution. We offer a range of opportunities through which you can fulfill your CSR commitments and actively invest in the community in which you operate.

We've prepared several creative selections for our corporate partners in 2023. Bon appétit!

What's FHK Community Network?

Apart from saving food and feeding people, we also thrive to drive changes. Over the years, we have been working closely with various partners to raise the awareness of the food waste and food insecurity issues.

This year, we aim to launch an official programme and expand our network. We are inviting more local restaurants and shops to join hands with us and spread the word.

You can play a part in helping us build a Hong Kong with no food waste and food insecurity.
